

There Are No Waitlists, How Do I Try to Register for a Closed (Full) Course?

- Look for other open sections in the same course or other courses that fulfill your academic requirements.
- Departments will be monitoring enrollments in course sections and may be able to offer additional sections as demand increases.
- Check back often to see if additional sections have been offered. Check with the department of the course you are interested in.

Search for Courses Terminology/Tips

Search Terminology

CRN: Course Reference Number-Identifies a specific section of course. (4 digit number).

Course Title: The title of the course from the course catalog. If you search by title, you can enter any part of the title for it to display upon the search

Special Term: Separates course search results by level (such as undergraduate, graduate, law, etc.)

Course Req: Search by special requirements such as honors, writing, or diversity

Sort Criteria: Get search results customized to your requirements

Search Results

Days of the Week: Get more specific search results by choosing classes that occur on a specific day(s). For example, if you wanted to display Monday classes only, check that option

Start/End Time: Search classes that fall within a range. You can also see all classes that start and/or end before or after a certain time.

Display Options: Display additional information by selecting different options in the "Display Options." For example, if you wanted to see if any pre-requisites existed for a class, click the "Co- and Pre- Requisites" box

Search View: By default, the results will display as a detailed tabular list. To view the results in separate blocks or as an Excel spreadsheet, select the appropriate "View As" option.

Tips

- Check Registration Restrictions: Click on the CRN, then the course title, restrictions will appear on the Detail Class information screen if there are any.
- Select multiple criteria by holding the CTRL key and clicking.

Tip!

Search the 'Course Schedule' and check your 'Registration Status' before your date to register

Before you attempt to register for any classes in Banner, go to the Law Student Tab. In the Left column are all the channels relating to the Banner system and Fall registration activities. You should check the following:

Registration Tools

- Registration Status
- Look Up Classes
- Add or Drop Classes

When Can I Register?

Use the 'When Can I Register?' link in the BANNER for Fall 2008 Channel at the top left part of the Law Student Tab.

What is my Registration Status?

Use the 'Registration Status' link in the Registration Tools channel to determine if you have:

- Any Holds. Be sure to resolve any hold prior to attempting to register for classes.
- Your class standing and program of study for the term
- If you need to be re-admitted or notify the Registrar's Office of a return from leave of absence or withdrawal.

Course Schedule Search Tool

You can use the 'Course Schedule' link in the Registration Tools channel or in the Banner Channels Fall 2008 to search for classes before starting the registration process.

Add or Drop Classes

Click this link in the Registration Tools

Lookup CRN and Register

Check your Registration Status

- Select the appropriate term and hit "Submit"
- Check your information (see What is my Registration Status? section)

Choose Back to Law Student Tab (at the upper-left corner of the screen).

Choose Add and Drop Classes.

- Select the appropriate term and hit "Submit"
- You are brought to the "Add or Drop Classes" screen. Your current schedule will appear at the top and the worksheet at the bottom.
- In the "Add Classes Worksheet" section you can enter CRN(s) for classes you would like to register.
Note: If you do not know the CRN click on Class Search or refer to the Class Search section below.
- Choose Submit Changes.
- If there is a seat available and no errors appear, the class is added to your schedule (you are registered).
- Your current schedule will appear on the same page above the worksheet area.
- When you have added all your classes, double check the list, and you are done!

Class Search

Please see Search for Courses Terminology/Tips for more detailed information. Note that if you call Class Search from the Add or Drop Classes screen the class search results will have checkboxes next to the classes which, if checked and the Register button selected, will add the class to your schedule. Courses that are closed will not have the checkbox but instead display a "C" in that area.

Law Students will want to be sure to select Blocks under the View As drop-down list. This will ensure that critical information provided by the instructor or University is displayed.

To list only Law classes, scroll down to Special Term (Law, MSEL, MSGL, & Abroad) and select "Law Fall" or put "LW" in the Course Subject box (under Course: near the top of the screen).

Registration Add Errors: Overrides

When attempting to register you may receive a message indicating a "Registration Add Error." This means that there is at least one course restriction which you do not qualify for or the course may be full.

Registration Add Error: Steps to take

- Student receives a "Registration Add Error" and wants to pursue registering for the course.
- Student contacts the instructor of the course requesting an override for the restriction.
- Instructor determines (through department policy) if the student should be granted the override.
- The instructor contacts the student to let them know the status.
- The student can check for the override status in the Registration Status link in Banner.
- If the override is granted, the student can then attempt to register for the course again.

Check Registration Restrictions on a Course

- If you want to see pre- and co-requisite classes, ensure that when you search, under "Display Options" the "Co- and Pre-requisites" box is checked.
- If, when you try to add the CRN, you receive "INVALID LEVEL FOR COURSE", then you are probably registering for a course outside of your program (Law or Graduate level course for an Undergraduate).
